

Practitioner stakeholder workshop on an enhanced LCA methodology for Resources

Draft AGENDA

Wednesday 22 May 2019 – 11h00-16h30

Radisson Blu Hotel Berlin, Room Turmalin
 Karl-Liebknecht-Str. 3, 10178 Berlin, Germany

11:00 Welcome coffee & safety instructions

11:15 Workshop Part I – Practitioner Background to the EIT-SUPRIM Project

Learning and informing

- Introduction of the workshop – Prof. Jo Dewulf, Ghent University
- Sustainability Assessment: concerns of sustainability managers – Dr. Massimo Gasparon, EIT Raw Materials

12:15 LUNCH

13:15 Workshop Part I – cont.

- Sustainability Assessment: data concerns of researchers – Dr. Tobias Kampmann, Luleå University of Technology
- Sustainability Assessment: concerns and interests of practitioners and clients – Mr. Dominik Müller, Quantis International

14:00 Workshop Part II – Discussion of SUPRIM Results with Practitioners

Sustainable management of PRIMARY raw materials through a better approach in Life Cycle Sustainability Assessment (SUPRIM)

- State of the Art & Business Case – Dr. Rodrigo Alvarenga, Ghent University

14:30 Preliminary results of SUPRIM's consensus-based search for an LCIA method for abiotic resource use – Dr. Jeroen B. Guinee, Leiden University

Conclusions and Key Messages from Practitioners

16:30 End of the Workshop

